Farmingville, NY - On Saturday, April 20, 2013, Councilwomen Kepert and Bonner honored Robert E. Murdolo of Boy Scout Troop 433 for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. For his project, Robert restored a fire hose truck at the Brookhaven Fire Museum in Ridge, where historic equipment and memorabilia from Long Island's volunteer fire departments is displayed.

"Robert Murdolo became Troop 433's newest Eagle Scout today. Troop 433 has a group of outstanding, dedicated leaders, and wonderful scouts whose projects help to improve the quality of life of Middle Island and beyond. Robert proudly became the troop's 59th Eagle Scout. Congratulations to Robert and his wonderful family," said Councilwoman Kepert.

"Achieving the rank of Eagle Scout is an accomplishment that Robert should be very proud of," said Councilwoman Bonner, "His hard work and dedication to the community sets a great example for all to follow and he is certainly on a path to be one of our future leaders."
